About MLS Affiliate

Members of the real estate community have always been at the core of the way My State MLS does business. That's why My State MLS has partnered with MLS Affiliate, Inc. This partnership will reward real estate professionals for what they're already doing: using the best tools for their business and recommending those tools to their colleagues.

MLS Affiliate shares revenue with its members by rewarding them with direct payments for referring real estate products and services to their network. Influential members of the real estate community have a unique opportunity to share revenue with MLS Affiliate, Inc. and its partners through this referral program.

Affiliates are paid when they refer qualified members who purchase MLS and other services from My State MLS. Affiliates receive referral fees for their direct sales, as well as for sales made by affiliates who join the program under them.
